Hobby more for everyone

Hobby

each model is in a league of it's own

Love mobility and want to feel that you don't have to compromise on anything even when you are travelling?

Good handling, lots of driving pleasure, generous space and the tried and tested performance of the classic chassis from Ford, Fiat and Iveco make every model a perfect motorhome!

You will find many different layout concepts in the new low profile models Hobby Van, Siesta Exclusive, Toscana and Toscana Exclusive. Each model series has its own distinctive style. Whether it is everyday or just on holiday - you will sense the unrestricted mobility here immediately.

The layouts of our over-cab Siesta and Sphinx models provide a generous amount of space. The cosy sleeping area above the cab comfortably separates the living and sleeping areas.

Our luxury Sphinx models provide an extra helping of space and are a superior companion for your holiday.

Every Hobby motorhome provides ultimate holiday experiences at a fair price. Whether you are on the road with the economic Hobby Van Classic, suitable for every day use, or discovering the world in the elegant Hobby Toscana Exclusive - your personal taste decides.
